1. Come, broth-ers all, in ev-'ry land, Of ev-'ry race and creed!
2. In u-ni-ty is free-dom found; No na-tion thrives a-lone.
3. We'll "blaze the trail" for last-ing peace To spread a high-way free;
4. Come, broth-ers, now your voi-ces blend In end-less songs for peace!

A-wake to save a war-sick world, Its prayers for peace to heed!
The good to one brings good to all With Ser-vice on the throne.
No long-er stand we na-tion-bound, World cit-i-zens are we.
Dis-arm all foes with har-mo-ny And bid earth's war-cries cease!

A-rise to see all bound-'ries fade, A world-wide vis-ion hold—
The Gold-en Rule, put to the test, World-Jus-tice shall up-hold—
One u-ni-ver-sal broth-er-hood Man-kind shall yet be-hold—
One u-ni-ver-sal speech is song: Its mes-sage as of old—

One God a-bove, one law of Love, One trust, one cause, one fold!

Will You Aid in a SONG-FOR-PEACE Crusade?

Every war calls forth its stirring war songs. Why should not the war on war have its full quota of inspiring songs, honoring peace rather than strife?

Man's natural yearning for peace and freedom, as expressed in spontaneous song, is recorded time and again in the Bible.

Psalms 51: 14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, ... and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

Psalms 67: 4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt.... govern the nations upon earth.

11 Chronicles 20: 20-22 And they rose early in the morning...and...Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the Lord your God..... so shall ye prosper.
And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the Lord.... that should praise .... as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the Lord....
And when they began to sing and to praise .... they which were come against Judah .... were smitten.

1 Corinthians 14: 15 What is it then?..... I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

We believe the hour is struck to mobilize an advance "army" of those who "sing with the understanding." With this goal in view we invite each person receiving and approving
